

Complete the story and highlight the adjectives.

Draw a picture when you finish.

There was a large money tree in Amy's quiet garden. Every morning, money dropped from the long branches. She would spend ten minutes picking it all up. She didn't know how it worked, but she was happy. Amy used all the money to buy new things for her and her family, until one day...

The Money Tree
