

Complete the story and highlight the adjectives.

Draw a picture when you finish.

I cannot wait to decorate my room. I had begged my mother for the past three months for a makeover, but she had told me to wait. After aeons of being patient and hoping she'd changed her mind, she finally did. I had saved many pictures of what I wanted my room to look like and showed them to her. She kept them on her phone, and when she was ready, she took me to the store...

Makeover Woes
