

Complete the story and highlight the adjectives.

Draw a picture when you finish.

The Earth

The universe is a beautiful place to live, and one of its planets, the earth, is even more stunning. It is a giant spherical rock that rotates about its axis and revolves around the sun. A rotation gives twenty-four hours, and a revolution makes a year. In a year, there are twelve months, and each has a particular season. My favourite of these is....
