

Name: _____

Date: _____

Adjectives

Add adjectives to up level the sentences.

1. There is nothing _____ than a new TV show.
2. Are you _____ to be going home?
3. I was _____ at such an _____ news.
4. It is quite _____ how our new English teacher is _____.
5. I am _____ that he would do something so _____.
6. The students have had _____ protests, explaining _____ grievances.
7. Nelly gave her such a _____ present.
8. She is about to face _____ disciplinary measures.
9. I was _____ at such _____ display of love .
10. The _____ curator is searching for _____ answers.

Answers

Adjectives

Answers may vary.

1. There is nothing more interesting than a new TV show.
2. Are you excited to be going home?
3. I was elated at such an good news.
4. It is quite alarming how our new English teacher is frightening.
5. I am stunned that he would do something so disturbing.
6. The students have had numerous protests, explaining several grievances.
7. Nelly gave her such a thoughtful present.
8. She is about to face severe disciplinary measures.
9. I was confused at such unnecessary display of love .
10. The hard-working curator searching for baffling answers.

