

Complete the story and highlight the adverbs.

Draw a picture when you finish.

Tennis is a sport that requires dedication. For anyone to expertly play, they would need to put in years of dogged service. Generally, Tennis players learn to play when they are children.

They are taught to grip their racket and powerfully serve a ball purposefully. They often wake up before dawn to stretch and loosen their muscles. Tennis players...
