Complex Sentences

Underline the subordinate clause in each sentence.

1. When the clock struck 12, they knew they were doomed.

2. Amy had pizza for dinner every night because she loved pineapple on pizza.

3. Before Jack started his new job, he got a hair cut.

4. The moon came up as the set off on their camping trip.

5. Jim's diamonds shone brightly in the light as he showed them off to his friends.

6. Becca's arm was sore because she ran into the door.

7. Although his leg was sore, he still ran the race.

8. She cried for hours because of her brother.

Complex Sentences

Underline the subordinate clause in each sentence.

1. When the clock struck 12, they knew they were doomed.

2. Amy had pizza for dinner every night because she loved pineapple on pizza.

3. Before Jack started his new job, he got a hair cut.

4. The moon came up as the set off on their camping trip.

5. Jim's diamonds shone brightly in the light as he showed them off to his friends.

6. Becca's arm was sore because she ran into the door.

7. Although his leg was sore, he still ran the race.

8. She cried for hours because of her brother.