

Name: _____

Date: _____

Compound v Complex

Write compound or complex for each sentence.

1. Tim's eyes were watering because of the onion.

2. Jack had one slice, and Mary had two slices.

3. Although his toy broke, he didn't cry.

4. She had a cold, so she stayed home from school.

5. He travelled in summer, and he played sport in winter.

6. Since her arrival, the family felt safer.

7. They loved each other, so they decided to get married.

Compound v Complex

Write compound or complex for each sentence.

1. Tim's eyes were watering because of the onion.

Complex

2. Jack had one slice, and Mary had two slices.

Compound

3. Although his toy broke, he didn't cry.

Complex

4. She had a cold, so she stayed home from school.

Compound

5. He travelled in summer, and he played sport in winter.

Compound

6. Since her arrival, the family felt safer.

Complex

7. They loved each other, so they decided to get married.

Compound

