

Name: _____

Date: _____

Personification

Underline the personification in each paragraph.

1. Jack ran for his life. The forest was dark and scary. The leaves danced in the wind and the sky darkened. His breaths became deeper, and the trees looked at him with caution.
2. Sally loved reading. She went to the library every day and watched the books run off the shelves. Sally loved the magic of books, and the pages leapt out at her.
3. Simon ran on the road every day. The road talked to him and made him feel good. He ran at a good pace, and his shoes ate the road so fast.

Personification

Underline the personification in each paragraph.

1. Jack ran for his life. The forest was dark and scary. The leaves danced in the wind and the sky darkened. His breaths became deeper, and the trees looked at him with caution.
2. Sally loved reading. She went to the library every day and watched the books run off the shelves. Sally loved the magic of books, and the pages leapt out at her.
3. Simon ran on the road every day. The road talked to him and made him feel good. He ran at a good pace, and his shoes ate the road so fast.

