1. The wind spoke to Amy and showed her the way. Her sister was lost and she had to find her. The moon laughed at her from above as she made her way through the gloomy forest.
2. Her new car wasn't so new. It coughed up smoke every time she started it. "This is hopeless," she muttered to herself. All of a sudden, the car gave a loud scream and then turned off. "I give up," she said.
3. The flowers bowed to her as she skipped home. The sky was blue and the birds were singing. The trees stood tall and smiled down upon her.
