

Name: _____

Date: _____

Personification

Underline the personification in each paragraph.

1. The icy cold wind caressed her delicate face. She was scared as she made her way to the top of the mountain. The mountain called to her and urged her to continue.
2. The tall tree wore its leaves beautifully. It had been growing for many years. The tree looked out over the town and had the thickest trunk and greenest leaves.
3. Night was coming and the dark clouds ran across the sky. It was clear that the rain was coming. The sky roared in anger as the rain pelted the pavement.

Personification

Underline the personification in each paragraph.

1. The icy cold wind caressed her delicate face. She was scared as she made her way to the top of the mountain. The mountain called to her and urged her to continue.
2. The tall tree wore its leaves beautifully. It had been growing for many years. The tree looked out over the town and had the thickest trunk and greenest leaves.
3. Night was coming and the dark clouds ran across the sky. It was clear that the rain was coming. The sky roared in anger as the rain pelted the pavement.

