

Name: _____

Date: _____

Redundant Words

Underline the redundant words.

1. She gathered the basic essentials before she started her long journey.
2. Her mother told her to return back the books that she borrowed.
3. John was angry and had a closed fist. That was very concerning.
4. The twins were exactly identical. It was so scary, but they looked so similar.
5. The final outcome was not what she wanted. She failed her driving test.
6. Sometimes past history is ugly. We need to make sure we learn from our mistakes.
7. She thought it was a new beginning for her family.

Redundant Words

Underline the redundant words.

1. She gathered the basic essentials before she started her long journey.
2. Her mother told her to return back the books that she borrowed.
3. John was angry and had a closed fist. That was very concerning.
4. The twins were exactly identical. It was so scary, but they looked so similar.
5. The final outcome was not what she wanted. She failed her driving test.
6. Sometimes past history is ugly. We need to make sure we learn from our mistakes.
7. She thought it was a new beginning for her family.

