

Name: _____

Date: _____

Similes

Underline the similes in each paragraph.

1. Max failed his test and began to sob. His eyes watered like a boat overflowing. He could feel his chest rising like a swell in the ocean. "How will I explain this to my parents?" he cried.
2. The cats lived a perfect life. They were served upon like kings. Their owners were like slaves and gave them food constantly. All they did was eat and sleep. Their lives were as peaceful as the still water on a lake.
3. Jenny's car broke down. It was coughing up smoke like a chimney. She knew this would happen, it had been as slow as a turtles for months.

Similes

Underline the similes in each paragraph.

1. Max failed his test and began to sob. His eyes watered like a boat overflowing. He could feel his chest rising like a swell in the ocean. "How will I explain this to my parents?" he cried.
2. The cats lived a perfect life. They were served upon like kings. Their owners were like slaves and gave them food constantly. All they did was eat and sleep. Their lives were as peaceful as the still water on a lake.
3. Jenny's car broke down. It was coughing up smoke like a chimney. She knew this would happen, it had been as slow as a turtles for months.

