

Name: _____

Date: _____

Simple v Compound

Write simple (s) or compound (c) for each sentence.

1. Mary was sick, but Peter was okay. _____
2. Jack plays soccer on Saturdays. _____
3. Her dad was an angry man. _____
4. He ran to the ocean, and played in the water. _____
5. Sally's new dog was naughty. _____
6. Sam had a pink car, and Jan had a red car. _____
7. The music was so loud. _____
8. He was tired, so he went to bed. _____
9. Paul's mother told him to be quiet. _____
10. The house was on fire. _____

Simple v Compound

Write simple (s) or compound (c) for each sentence.

1. Mary was sick, but Peter was okay. C
2. Jack plays soccer on Saturdays. S
3. Her dad was an angry man. S
4. He ran to the ocean, and played in the water. C
5. Sally's new dog was naughty. S
6. Sam had a pink car, and Jan had a red car. C
7. The music was so loud. C
8. He was tired, so he went to bed. C
9. Paul's mother told him to be quiet. S
10. The house was on fire. S

