

Name: _____

Date: _____

Full Stops

Add full stops and capital letters to the sentences.

1. Her uncle picked her up for school he was late again, so she walked
2. The man rode the train to work every day he never owned his own car
3. Jerry ran to school in the morning it was cold, but he liked to run
4. The sand under her toes felt great she was in loved with the beach
5. Her shoes were new she bought them from the shop on the corner
6. John was very fast he would run in races every weekend

Full Stops

Add full stops and capital letters to the sentences.

1. Her uncle picked her up for school. He was late again, so she walked
2. The man rode the train to work every day. He never owned his own car
3. Jerry ran to school in the morning. It was cold, but he liked to run
4. The sand under her toes felt great. She was in loved with the beach
5. Her shoes were new. She bought them from the shop on the corner
6. John was very fast. He would run in races every weekend

