Speech Marks

Tick the correct sentences

1. A. The weather presenter cautioned, There is a "high likelihood of thunderstorms tomorrow." ☐

    B. The weather presenter cautioned, "There is a high likelihood of thunderstorms tomorrow." ☐

    C. The weather presenter "cautioned, There is a high likelihood of thunderstorms tomorrow." ☐

2. A. The principal congratulated the students, "Well done on your efforts for the fundraiser." ☐

    B. The principal congratulated the students, Well done on your efforts "for the fundraiser." ☐

    C. "The principal congratulated the students, Well done on your efforts for the fundraiser." ☐

3. A. Jamie's mum said to her, How was your day "at school today?" ☐

    B. Jamie's mum said to her, How was your day at school today? ☐

    C. Jamie's mum said to her, "How was your day at school today?" ☐

Speech Marks

Tick the correct sentences

1. A. The weather presenter cautioned, There is a "high likelihood of thunderstorms tomorrow." ☐
   B. The weather presenter cautioned, "There is a high likelihood of thunderstorms tomorrow." ✅
   C. The weather presenter "cautioned, There is a high likelihood of thunderstorms tomorrow." ☐

2. A. The principal congratulated the students, "Well done on your efforts for the fundraiser." ✅
   B. The principal congratulated the students, Well done on your efforts "for the fundraiser." ☐
   C. "The principal congratulated the students, Well done on your efforts for the fundraiser." ☐

3. A. Jamie's mum said to her, How was your day "at school today?" ☐
   B. Jamie's mum said to her, How was your day at school today? ☐
   C. Jamie's mum said to her, "How was your day at school today?" ✅