The glorious mountain gave Bella amazing powers that she could never imagine. She used her incredible skills to help those in trouble. Bella carefully put on her cape and quickly flew out of the mountain cave. She knew her missions were dangerous, but she didn't care. "Help! I'm in trouble," called a scared voice. Bella sharply moved towards the voice.

MAGIC MOUNTAIN

Highlight the adjectives & adverbs. Finish the story and highlight your adjectives & adverbs.

Alex never crossed the treacherous bridge. The dark mysteries surrounding it were too much. Each night, when the bright moon began to rise, the bridge would start to glow. Scary noises could be heard coming from beneath it. Dark clouds lingered above the bridge as if to indicate danger. The wisest of men would not go near that frightening bridge...

Instructions

- Students complete the story, highlight the adjectives & adverbs & color the picture! Hang them around your classroom.
- Get your class to see if they can color the picture as close as possible to the color version. It's a great challenge that will engage your students in the writing (and coloring) process.

MESSAGE IN A BOTTLE

My hands shook as I held the letter, we had buried in the beach some many years ago. It was a wonder that a piece of paper we had planted in a bottle, cliché as it might sound, was all that I had left. I opened the letter and my heart jumped. I was in shock. This was not the message we wrote...This was not the message I was expecting...

MESSAGE IN A BOTTLE

My fragile hands shook as I held the torn letter, we had buried in the beach some many years ago. It was a wonder that a simple piece of paper we had planted in a bottle, cliché as it might sound, was all that I had left. I opened the letter gently and my heart jumped suddenly. I was in shock. This was not the message we wrote...This was not the message I was expecting...

THE TROLL

The ginormous troll came out of his cave once a month to find food. That was the perfect time for us to stay home and quietly hide! He was incredibly tall, and his stench was strong. His fingers were long, and his nose had warts. He was truly a disgusting green beast. It was that time of month again and we began to quickly lock our doors...
